

DEMOCRATIC HEARTS, REPUBLICAN WALLETS, and INDEPENDENT MINDS

Oh, Democratic hearts, so willing to share our country's wealth, her largess with those under tyranny's heels. Yes, send money, the Marines, the Peace Corp for your humanitarian hearts ache over the human condition caused by ignorance, greed and cruel Mother Nature.

Oh, Republican wallets, so willing to share our country's wealth, her largess with Wall Street, Main Street, all streets, keeping commerce running on disciplined rails with hard-nosed responsibility that two and two equals four, no more, no less.

Oh, Independent minds, so willing to share our country's wealth, her largess with the freedom to speak out, marching with many to correct narrow-thinking tyranny and lack of compassion. Action stirs your words and takes you to Wall Street, Main Street, all streets.

Oh, Americans, so willing to share our country's wealth, her largess of citizens, multi-cultural, multi-denominational, multi-dimensional.
One Nation, my Country, my Home.
